YORK REGION CONDOMINIUM CORPORATION NO. 616

BY-LAW NO. 3

A By-Law to establish a "standard unit"

WHEREAS Section 56(1)(h) of the Condominium Act, 1998, Chapter 19, Statutes of Ontario, 1998, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") provides that the Board of Directors of York Region Condominium Corporation No. 616 (hereinafter "the Corporation") may pass a by-law establishing what constitutes a standard unit for each class of units specified in the by-law for the purpose of determining the responsibility for repair of improvements after damage and insuring them;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable for the Board to enact such a by-law to clarify the responsibilities and obligations of the unit owner and the Corporation with respect to repair to such improvements to the unit;

AND WHEREAS the unit owner shall remain responsible for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the unit, as defined in Schedule "C" to the Declaration, and for maintaining, repairing, replacing and insuring any improvements or betterments to the unit;

AND WHEREAS an "improvement" is defined to be, for the purposes of this by-law, any change made to the unit and/or its fixtures, fittings and finishes as defined in Schedule "A" attached to and forming part of this by-law, and as more specifically set out below;

BE IT ENACTED as a by-law of the Corporation, as follows:

1. For the purposes of this by-law, all dwelling units at the Corporation shall be deemed to be of one class.
2. The standard unit shall mean the dwelling unit itself as defined in Schedule "C" of the declaration together with the fixtures, fittings and finishes detailed in the schedule attached hereto as Schedule "A". Subject to paragraph 4 below, this Schedule "A" listing shall be comprehensive and conclusive as to the totality of fixtures, fittings and finishes forming part of the standard unit.
3. The unit owner shall be responsible for the cost of maintenance, repair, replacement, and to arrange adequate insurance for all improvements or betterments to the dwelling unit made or acquired by the unit owner.
4. Notwithstanding the above definition of standard unit, the following fixtures, fittings and finishes shall be deemed to be improvements and betterments within the meaning of this by-law and for the purposes of the Condominium Act, 1998;
  - * All floor coverings on the bare concrete floor slab, including without limitation, all carpets and broadloom, floor tiles including wood parquet, hardwood, composite materials, linoleum or vinyl type applications, and all application treatments including adhesives, under-padding and sound transmission barriers;

(beyond primary coat), varnish, stain, wallpaper, or other covering, application, or installation of any kind or material;

- * All ceiling finishes, coverings, applications, and/or materials on or attached to, or on the unit side of the primary paint coat finished gypsum board or other originally installed ceiling material;
  - * The kitchen counter top, as originally installed, replaced, altered or upgraded, including, without limitation, any sink(s), tap or faucet set, backsplash, sealant and all means of attachment to the plumbing, walls and/or cabinetry;
  - * The bathroom vanity counter tops, as originally installed, replaced, altered or upgraded, including, without limitation, any sink(s), tap or faucet set, backsplash, sealant and all means of attachment to the plumbing, walls and/or cabinetry;
  - * All window coverings, including without limitation valances, drapes, drapery linings, drapery sheers and blinds.
5. Any and all excess costs incurred by the corporation relating to maintenance, repair and/or replacement of fixtures, fittings or finishes constituting part of the standard unit or common elements where such has been occasioned by the unit owner or a predecessor in title replacing or altering original fixtures, fittings and/or finishes is deemed to be a cost of maintaining, repairing or replacing an improvement or betterment, and any such cost shall be paid or payable by the owner to the corporation and shall constitute a common expense payable with respect to the unit.

The foregoing By-Law is hereby passed by the Directors and confirmed by the owners pursuant to the Act.

PASSED by the Board of Directors of YORK REGION CONDOMINIUM CORPORATION NO. 616 on the 28th day of February, 2012.
